

CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

An institution must have a chief executive officer who has the capacity and authority to lead the institution toward the accomplishment of its mission.

---

Dr. Judy Cook

Dr. Judy Cook was born in Perry, Georgia where she lived until her adult life. She attended Middle Georgia College in Cochran, Georgia where she received an Associate Degree in Psychology. She then attended Fort Valley State College in Fort Valley, Georgia where she received a Bachelor's Degree in Education. She later received a Doctoral Degree in Christian Education from Emmanuel College of Theology and North Carolina College of Theology.

Dr. Cook taught middle school age students for 29 years in the public school system upon her retirement in 2013. She then became President of The North Carolina College of Theology due to the death of her husband, Dr. J. L. Cook. She has served in this capacity until the present date.

Drs. Johnny and Judy Cook pastored churches for 29 years. Dr. Cook has taught Sunday School for many age levels; organized and directed women's ministries in the church; and, was Children's Church Director for 20 years. She has taught at Ladies' Conference in many churches. She is now traveling and speaking on behalf of NCCT. She has authored three books.

Dr. Cook was married to the late Dr. J. L. Cook for 38 years. They have three sons, Jonathan, Daniel, and Timothy Cook, which are all ministers of the Gospel. They have six granddaughters and one grandson.

As CEO of NCCT, Dr. Cook is evaluated each year by the Board of Directors.